

Story Points Reference

Flying

From a dull room in a respite care facility, you drift into a daydream - flying over a dramatic coastline.

Meeting Joy

Joy, your mother and full-time caregiver, wakes you and talks about her desire for you to have better communication ability.

Joy leaves

Joy takes a call and leaves the room - you overhear how she's struggling financially, and getting poor/conflicting information from support services.

Mosquito

A mosquito dive bombs and lands on you.

Mystery support staff

Support staff enter the room behind you. You can't see them, but you can hear the mystery man talk about something that will effect you. He's highly disrespectful, and ultimately gets what he deserves when scolded and dumped by the mystery lady.

Joy returns

Joy returns, kills the mosquito, and talks about an attractive student who's been obsessing over you.

Doctor Brown

A distracted and dismissive doctor discusses your case with Joy in front of you. He explains you'll never get any better, and fails to address or even acknowledge you.

Communication issues with Joy

You fail to communicate with Joy using Yes/No cards due to motor issues with your eyes. She then leaves to collect costume options for the circus themed ball she assumes you want to go to.

Phone call

You are unable to answer the phone call from the cute student.

Teenage girl and younger brother

The young boy attempts to play with you, while his older sister scolds him for staring at and scaring you.

Jack

A well-meaning but inexperienced new carer, Jack, treats you like you're a child, embarrasses you, and moves you without permission.

Talking Mime

You are left to endure the infuriating, condescending children's show.

Coughing fit

On the back of Jack removing your pillow, your lungs have filled up with blood and mucus. The resultant near-fatal coughing fit lands you in hospital.

Hospital

Joy tells you how much she loves you, and wishes again for a better communication method.

Communication upgrade

Back in the respite care facility, Joy connects you to a BCI (brain computer interface) communication device, giving you agency over your experiences and allowing you to return her loving sentiment.

Explosion

The satisfying end to Talking Mimes
